I think it's time to be a host to my baby,
i think it's time make a toast to my baby,
i think it's time to just propose to my lady,
will you marry me?

Your truly the best,a bless, the greatest girl i know,
you made my life worth living, baby and it shows.
I want to have you closer to me,
to feel happily home.
i want to promise that i'll never leave you alone.

For one thing i'm really sure for you my love has no end.
And nothing in this world can separate us,
So until then
